

Awarded Soldier's Medal for Heroism

With the entire 106th Division in review at Fort Jackson, S. C., last Saturday, the soldier's medal for heroism was presented to Staff Sergeant Richard L. Nierman, son of Mrs. Daisy Brooks, 451 Baltimore avenue, by Major General Alan W. Jones, the divisional commander. Sgt. Nierman and Pvt. Robert K. Maahs, also decorated, rescued a soldier who was drowning, and the citation declared they performed an act of heroism "over and above the line of duty."

Sgt. Nierman, known here as "Bricky," is a former Evening Times carrier and was a boiler-maker helper at the B. & O.
