

FRANKLIN, INDIANA, FRIDAY, APRIL 7, 1944 Business

ATTERBURY WELCOMES 106TH DIVISION, THIRD BIG UNIT THERE FOR TRAINING

MAJ. GEN. ALAN W. JONES. HEADQUARTERS
106th DIVISION COL. WILLIAM C. BAKER, JR.

JEROME L. SALM. LT. COL. RICHARD JONES. LT. COL. W. D. VEAZIE.

Pictured above in U. S. Signal Corps photos are some of the new arrivals at Camp Atterbury. In top photo, three generals and a colonel talk things over in the office of the commanding general of the 106th Division, recently arrived there for training. They are, left to right, Brig. Gen. Herbert T. Perris, assistant division commander; Maj. Gen. Alan W. Jones, division commander; Col. Wellon M. Modisette, post commander, and Brig. Gen. Leo T. McMahon, division artillery commander. Below the group picture are, left to right, a closeup of Gen. Jones; the entrance to the new headquarters of the 106th and Col. Baker, chief-of-staff of the 106th. In the lower row are Mr. Salm, new American Red Cross field director at Atterbury; Col. Jones, commanding officer of the newly arrived 772nd Tank Battalion and Col. Veazie, chaplain of the 106th division.

1944/04/07 Atterbury Welcomes 106th

Clipped By:

jimdwest
Thu, May 4, 2017