Camp Atterbury, April 17 (Special)—Comedy, beauty and intrigue have been woven into "Dim Your Lights," the U. S. O.-Camp show booked for five free performances at Atterbury today and Tuesday.

Heading the bill is "The Great Lester," a master magician who won renown for sensational acts that were illustrated in "Pic," "Look" and "Life" magazines. Assisted by "shape-some" Diane Rivers, the magician has as his most intriguing act the breath-taking stunt of sawing a woman in half with a 3-foot buzz saw without even concealing her in a box.

106TH HAS DANCE

Lovely Hoosier belles in formals, three "make-you-want-to-dance" orchestras, and plenty of refreshments were the features of a dance party held by the 106th Division last week in the Sports arena. It was the first "Lion" division social affair at Camp Atterbury and a "good time was had by all."

The party, sponsored by the Division Special Service office with the assistance of Service club hostesses, was attended by some 400 hostesses — Indianapolis Liberty Belles, WAVES from Indiana university and Atterbury.

Brig. Gen. Herbert P. Perrin, assistant division commander, sliced the huge party cake, while Brig. Gen. Leo T. McMahon, division artillery commander, and Col. William C. Baker, Jr., chief of staff, watched.

NEW WAC UNIFORM

WACS will be issued a uniform of khaki tropical worsted for summer wear.

The new uniform is similar to the summer uniform worn by WAC officers, the only difference being that the enlisted uniform does not have khaki braid on the sleeve cuff. There is no change in enlisted WAC insignia.

WACS will change to summer uniform on the same date as other military personnel.

FOUR NURSES PROMOTED

Four Army nurses here received promotions recently. Those receiving new ranks were Lt. Mildred R. Sloat and Velma E. Popczyk to captain and Second Lt. Grace L. Yaxley and Mary S. Rainnie to first lieutenant.
