

Art Class Popular at Camp

The model is Ephrom E. Newnum, Camp Atterbury service club employe, and the prospective "Rembrandts" are soldiers hard at work, too busy even to give the photographer a tumble. The art class is held each Tuesday at Atterbury's Service Club No. 1, and its popularity is spreading. From an initial class of four, sessions are now attended weekly by 15 to 20 soldiers. The picture in the foreground was drawn by Pvt. Arthur Jacobson, Hq. Section, 1537th Service Unit, who also acts as one of the club's instructors.—(106th Division Official U. S. Army Photo.)

1944_08_15 Art classes popular at Atterbury

Clipped By:

jimdwest

Wed, May 10, 2017