

Honeymooning Bride Is Camp Sweetheart

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)

trip here as the guest of the camp. He told us that she had just come here Sunday evening, and was in the guest house then! He further revealed that they had been married two weeks ago, and thought that's why the congratulations, wondering how we knew!

So we had to explain the double congratulations.

Johnny's sweetheart and wife will be Camp Atterbury's sweetheart next week, with parties, dances and events in her honor.

Introducing—Mrs. Pegge Claire Breen, wife of T/5 John J. Breen, Headquarters Special Troops, 106th Division—and, of course, Johnny.

Both Pegge and Johnny are from Detroit, where they met four years ago, while attending high school. It was "love at first sight." They started to "go steady" and graduated together in 1942. Johnny went to work as a statistician—Pegge did clerical work.

Then, in March, 1943, Johnny entered the army. Every day Pegge wrote him—every day he wrote her. Two weeks ago, when Johnny was home on a three day pass, they decided to get married, and they did, on Aug. 7th.

1944_08_25 Camp Atterbury Sweetheart - Part 2

Clipped By:

jimdwest

Wed, May 10, 2017