

WORKERS SEE SOLDIER SHOW

G. I.'s Stage 3 Performances Here for Cummins Company Employees.

An all-G.I. show, with talent from Camp Atterbury, was staged Friday at Crump's theater for employees of Cummins Engine company, sponsored by the Cummins Concession fund.

Three performances were given, including a matinee and two night shows. The theater was packed at both night performances.

One of the features of the program was a mass hypnotism act staged by Sgt. Ernest Heldman of the 106th Division special services section. Sergeant Heldman, who previously has made a big hit with local audiences, also entertained with tricks of magic and in his hypnotism act put a number of people in the audience to "sleep" as well as his volunteer subjects on the stage.

Sergeant McNulty was master of ceremonies and also staged a dancing act. Juanita and Orlando, a dance team, presented numbers and music was provided by a group of six musicians from the 106th Division bands.
