

OTHER 106TH MEN MISSING

Cpl. John Blower of Hampton, Va., and Pvt. Calvin Varner of South Fork, Pa., members of an infantry regiment of the 106th Division, have been reported missing in Germany since Dec. 16, according to word received by Mrs. Albert Pottebaum, 1607 Lawton avenue, at whose home they and their wives roamed last summer.

Pvt. Teddy Benaski of St. Albans, N. Y., is all right, although he earlier had his toes frozen while serving with the 83rd Division. He and Mrs. Benaski were married while the 83rd was at Atterbury, and lived at the Pottebaum home. They recently became the parents of a daughter.
