

106TH DIVISION TO HOLD REUNION SOON

Lloyd L. Colvin, of Franklin, is a charter member of the "Hoosier Golden Lions," representing the 422, 423 and 424 infantry regiments and the 589th field artillery comprising the 106th Division, which will hold a national reunion of survivors of the Battle of the Bulge in mid-July at Indianapolis.

The Indiana survivors and 106th members set up a temporary staff to plan for the national reunion at an organization meeting held Saturday night.
