

106th Division To Reunite In 16 Cities

Albany, N. Y. — Veterans of the 106th (Golden Lion) infantry division will remember the battle of the Bulge tonight in sixteen cities across the nation.

Memorial reunions, attracting hundreds of former GI's who stemmed a Nazi break-through at St. Vith, Belgium, in World War Two, will be held in Albany, Buffalo, New York City, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Boston, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis, Los Angeles, Minneapolis, Pittsburgh, Uniontown, Pa., Decatur, Ill., Indianapolis and Washington.

The meetings will commemorate the fourth anniversary of the start of that now famous battle in which the 106th lost nearly fifty per cent of its personnel in killed or captured.
